

Who to Contact

IELTS USA provides information and support to organizations that use IELTS to measure the English language proficiency of international applicants and works with US stakeholders to increase the number of institutions and programs that use the test throughout the US.

US stakeholders with general IELTS inquiries, test report form verification inquiries, or score delivery inquiries may contact the designated IELTS USA representative below:

Institutions located in the Midwest & Western United States

Donna Cameron

dcameron@ieltsusa.org

Institutions located in the Midwest & Eastern the United States

Bolu Oluwadiya

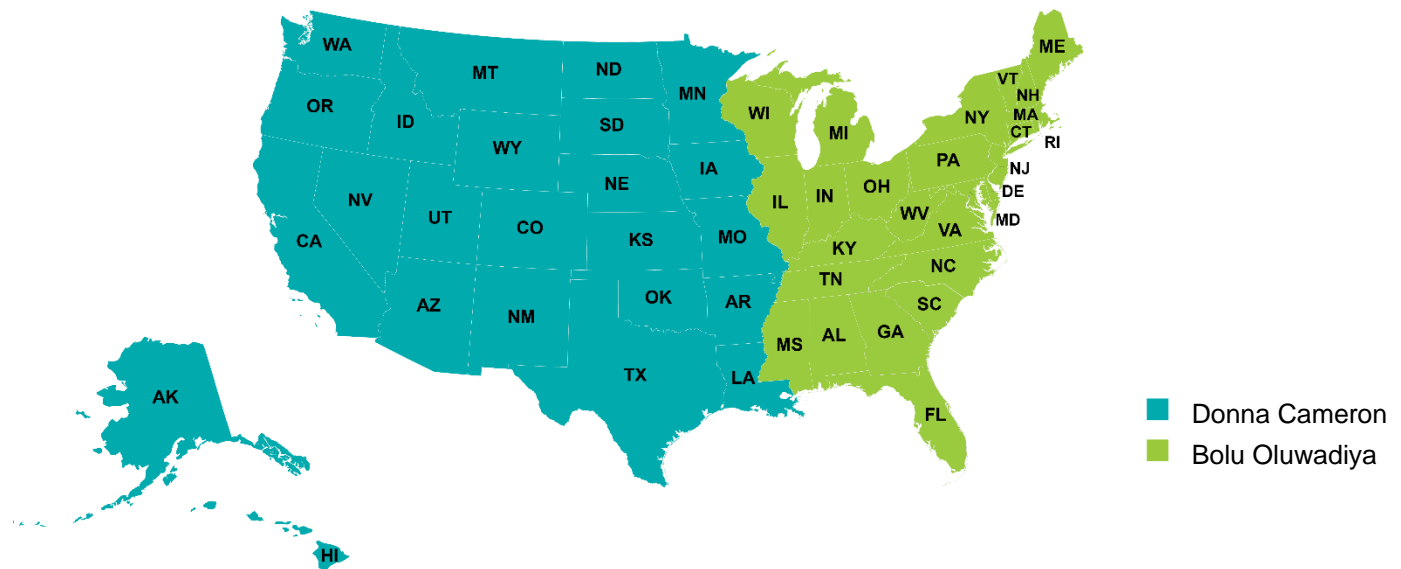

boluwadiya@ieltsusa.org

Graduate Programs in the United States

Marianne Menius

mmenius@ieltsusa.org

General Inquiries from Institutions in the US can be sent to stakeholder@ieltsusa.org.

In addition, IELTS USA manages the administration of IELTS test operations throughout the US test center network by providing training and support to official testing centers across the United States.

Test taker inquiries should be directed to the test center where the IELTS test was taken at ielts.org/testcenters.

If you are a stakeholder or test taker outside of the United States, please contact an IELTS representative from your region or submit an online enquiry form - ielts.org/info-pages/contact-us.
